

Anxious For Nothing Devotion – Robin Mead (2022) 1

Scripture – Book(s) and Chapter(s):

Psalm 94:11-15

Scripture passage(s):

The Lord knows the thoughts of man; He knows that they are futile. Blessed is the man you discipline, O Lord, the man you teach from your law. You grant him relief from days of trouble till a pit is dug for the wicked. For the Lord will not reject His people. He will never forsake His inheritance. Judgement will again be founded on righteousness and all the upright in heart will follow it.

Why this gives me hope:

As a father raises a child, teaching them the skills they will need in the world, our true Father guides us into and through situations so that we can become creations that are pleasing and prolificating in the heart of God our Father. When we fail, we show our weaknesses. This is a good thing. When we acknowledge our lacking, we open ourselves to receive that which we lack from God. What we possess too much of God culls from us also in the lessons of life. This life on earth is likened to our time in the womb, eternal life will begin after the Lamb's book of Life is opened and read, the Judgment by God, as described in Matthew 25.
